

Addendum to the NASD Handbook 2003-2004

National Association of Schools of Dance
September 2004

These amendments to the NASD Rules of Practice and Procedure were ratified by the Board of Directors on Thursday, September 9, 2004.

RULES OF PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE

NASD Handbook 2003-2004 – page 34

Article VII. Procedures for Reviewing Complaints Directed Against Member Institutions of the National Association of Schools of Dance Introductory Paragraph

Revise third sentence of introductory paragraph as follows:

The Association assumes no responsibility for adjudicating isolated individual grievances, nor will it act as a court of appeals in matters of student admission, retention, and dismissal; granting or transfer of credits; grades and other evaluations; scholarship awards; fees; disciplinary matters; collective bargaining; faculty appointments and dismissals; or similar matters.

NASD Handbook 2003-2004 – pages 35 and 36

Rules of Practice and Procedure

Article VII. Procedures for Reviewing Complaints Directed Against Member Institutions of the National Association of Schools of Dance

Section 1. Noncompliance with the Code of Ethics (page 35)

Section 2. Noncompliance with the Standards of the Association (page 36)

Revise last sentence in both Sections 1.b) and 2.b) as follows:

- b) The Executive Director of NASD shall determine whether the complaint or any portion thereof is within the scope or jurisdiction of the Association, and shall so inform the complainant.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF SCHOOLS OF DANCE
11250 Roger Bacon Drive, Suite 21
Reston, Virginia 20190-5248

E-mail: info@arts-accredit.org
Phone: 703-437-0700, Extension 19
Fax: 703-437-6312
Web site: <http://nasd.arts-accredit.org>